I Have Dirt on You

James 4:11-12 (CSB) "Don't criticize one another, brothers and sisters. Anyone who defames or judges a fellow believer defames and judges the law. If you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge. There is one lawgiver and judge who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you to judge your neighbor?"

Hebrews 10:19-25 (CSB) "Therefore, brothers and sisters, since we have boldness to enter the sanctuary through the blood of Jesus - he has inaugurated for us a new and living way through the curtain (that is, through his flesh) - and since we have a great high priest over the house of God, let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed in pure water. Let us hold on to the confession of our hope without wavering, since he who promised is faithful. And let us watch out for one another to provoke love and good works, not neglecting to gather together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging each other, and all the more as you see the day approaching."

- 1) What should we do with the dirt we have on others?
- 2) Obstacles to encouragement
- 3) Making the most of our opportunities to encourage one another

"Ever since Candace arrived in ND, she would speak about how loving and supportive all of you were. I have often told others that you had the most amazing church I have ever seen. You are the true body of Christ in your actions toward her. She felt that you were the family she had since she was away from us and loved you so much. The outpouring of kindness and love since her passing to my family was more than I have words to express my thanks for.

Love, Vanessa Brown (Candace's Mom)

AROUND THE WORLD

Indonesia - 80% Muslim; 12.9% Christian
 Though it has a reputation for tolerance, discrimination against religious minorities has increased. Local authorities close churches based on the retroactive enforcement of a law that requires the approval of 60 nearby residents before a church can be established. Though the rule is supposed to apply to new construction, it has been used repeatedly against long-established churches. Religious freedom is legally protected, but Christians often face discrimination from Muslim majority. New converts face community harassment and family pressure.

The South Central Homeless Coalition is having a diaper drive, running through August 14. Donate diapers and wipes or funds to buy diapers and wipes.
