RECOVERING A FORGOTTEN BLESSING

Deuteronomy 5:16 (Family Communication 1.4)

Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. Ephesians 6:1

"Honor your father and your mother, as the LORD your God has commanded you, so that you may live long and that it may go well for you in the land the LORD your God is giving you." Deuteronomy 5:16

God says that when I honor my parents, I . . .

- Exercise faith.
- Trust Him and not their performance.
Cf. Proverbs 4:8; Psalm 91:15.
- Teach my children to honor me.

These are the commands, decrees and laws the LORD your God directed me to teach you to observe in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess, so that you, your children and their children after them may fear the LORD your God as long as you live by keeping all his decrees and commands that I give you, and so that you may enjoy long life.
Deuteronomy 6:1-2 (cf. Matthew 15:3-9; Mark 7:9-13; 1 Timothy 5:8)

- Model honoring others.

Rise in the presence of the aged, show respect for the elderly and revere your God. I am the LORD. Leviticus 19:32

- Open myself to His blessing.

NEXT STEPS

Is honoring your parents hard or easy for you? Why? List specific ways that you honor them. Proverbs is a great tool for parent-child interaction and teaching. Spend some time together this week in Proverbs 2. Where does one find wisdom? What are some of the outcomes of practicing wisdom? Not practicing it? Thank God for your parents and ask Him to help you honor them.
