O BROTHER (AND SISTER)!

1 Corinthians 11:17-34 (Family Communication 1.1)

- ◆ Remember Jesus.
- ◆ Receive your brothers and sisters as Jesus receives us.

Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty concerning the body and blood of the Lord. Let a person examine himself, then, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup. For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment on himself. That is why many of you are weak and ill, and some have died (fallen asleep). But if we judged (discerned) ourselves truly, we would not be judged. But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined (or when we are judged we are being disciplined by the Lord) so that we may not be condemned along with the world.

1 Corinthians 11:27-32 (ESV)

Is not the cup of thanksgiving for which we give thanks a participation in the blood of Christ? And is not the bread that we break a participation in the body of Christ? Because there is one loaf, we, who are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf. 1 Corinthians 10:16-17 (NIV)

So then, my brothers (and sisters), when you come together to eat, receive each other. If anyone is hungry, he should eat at home, so that when you come together it may not result in judgment.

1 Corinthians 11:33-34a

NEXT STEPS

Do we consciously or unconsciously exclude people from celebrating God's grace because they are different from us? Do we erect barriers that, in effect, hinder people from the gospel? How is family reflected in my/our life? To understand more how God expects those who receive His grace to live (and in preparation for the coming weeks), please read Ephesians 4-5 and Colossians 3.
