Around the NAB Conference

Brett Moser- Fargo, ND

Brett leads River City Church. He is passionate about setting the pace for their mission and vision, keeping their attention toward reaching people in need of Jesus and the grace offered in his gift of salvation. Pray for Pastor Brett and the staff as they serve in Fargo. Pray for the leaders of the missional communities (groups within their church family who care for one another through discipleship encouragement and accountability).

First Baptist Church - Goodrich, ND

Rev. James & Rosemary Grupp

Neal & Kristen (Presler) Brown - Cru

- Pray for students coming to an upcoming conference in Minneapolis.
- Pray for McKynzie, a student who recently placed her trust in Christ.
- Pray for students as they head into finals week/Christmas vacation.

Around the World

LAOS – Buddhist 57.3%; Christian 3.4%

As one of the few remaining communist nations, Laos is a volatile area for Christians. Officially, the government permits the practice of four religions, including Christianity. In reality, however, Christians are harassed, evicted from their homes and forcibly relocated, denied education opportunities, arrested and forced to deny their faith. Churches are watched carefully by the government.

Conflicts and Needs: Central African Republic, Egypt, Iraq, Israel, Nigeria, South Sudan, Syria, Ukraine, West Africa

NAB Updates:

- Craig & Maureen Moody have answered God's call to serve as hostel parents at Rain Forest International School in Yaoundé, Cameroon;
- Paul & Tanya Gericke (Romania) are now fully funded;
- Ron & Jeannie Seck are developing a multi-mission agency strategy for Central Europe. Pray for them as they multiply ministry through Community Health Evangelism;
- Sioux Falls Seminary and Taylor Seminary are working with the International Missions Dept. to support theological education on NAB mission fields.
