Jesus calls us to follow Him if we would be His disciples. When asked about the greatest commandment, He quotes from Deuteronomy 6:5 and Leviticus 19:18. I plan to share on Jesus' words in Matthew 22:37-40/Mark

- How are we doing in equipping people to be disciples in personal transformation,
- promoting community and
- joining God on mission?

We are asking those questions as an Elder Board . . . and as a TBC family. As we develop/refine job descriptions and choose a Staff Search Committee, three areas stand out to me (which I address in the January 3 message).

It must be because I'm getting older, but the years seem to be clicking by faster and faster. So what really counts?

JANUARY 2016

Thank you to all who serve so faithfully. To the Elders who are concluding at least four years of service, Fred Aziz and Ellery Coombs, we share a special THANK YOU. Please

We appreciate your questions and comments. Next Sunday, January 10, at 9:20 a.m. (sanctuary) we will have an Open Forum as we share more detail on staff job searches and respond to questions that you may have on other TBC items.

January 10 we will have a class at 2 p.m. for those interested in learning about baptism and church membership. Please contact the church office if you are interested. This class is designed for those grade 6 through adult. I use a different format for grade school-aged children.

Thank you for your encouragement, prayers, giving and ministry in 2015. Ask yourself how Jesus is first in your life . . . in all areas.

12:29-31 in a three-part message series beginning January 10.

And pray in the Spirit on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests. With this in mind, be alert and always keep on praying for all the saints. Ephesians 6:18

One last note: While we are short on office and pastoral staff, our normal office hours are Tuesday – Friday, 8 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., but please call first (952.0822). Thank you for your understanding . . . and for your prayers as we seek God's people for serving in the areas of community life, youth and assistant secretary.

express your appreciation for their service to our Lord.

Small Group Meetings

- ◆ Been travelling for the holidays?
- ◆ Feeling disconnected from your church family?

The best way to connect with the TBC family is through a small group!

How about “Deeper relationships, deeper faith, greater impact” as your New Year’s resolution? Fill out the bulletin Response Form, or contact Pat Motschenbacher (patm@daktel.com) for details about our small groups.

If sinners be damned, at least let them leap into hell over our dead bodies. . .

And if they perish, let them perish with our arms wrapped around their knees . . .

If hell must be filled, let it be filled in the teeth of our exertions, and let no one go unwarned or unprayed for.

TBC Prayer - Wednesdays, 7:00 p.m. (Room 302)

The “Prayer Wall” reminds us of God’s faithfulness, His goodness and His power. Requests are tacked to the wall in various categories: God’s goodness, requests for salvation, health requests, gratitude (thanksgiving), requests regarding relationships, etc. God’s answers are also recorded. Join us in approaching God together with our requests, trusting His perfect will in His perfect time.

Prayer Is Weakness Leaning on Omnipotence

Logan & Annika Caldwell

Background: Logan was born at Fort Polk, LA. His family moved to Hettinger, ND in 1997 to strengthen a Baptist Church (his father is a pastor), where Logan was raised. Annika grew up in Hazen, ND. They met at the University of Jamestown, where Logan was Annika’s Freshman Orientation Leader as well as her TA for an Intro to Biology lab. They got to know one another the following year when they both served as Resident Assistants in the freshman dorm. One night while Logan was patrolling the dorms, he walked past Annika’s room and suddenly felt that he had just walked past the room of his future wife...he proposed about two years later!

Family: Logan and Annika have a beautiful little girl, Annalie Faith, born this past Easter morning! She is now 8½ months old, and loves walking (while holding on to Mommy or Daddy’s hands), babbling, splashing in the tub and drooling. Logan’s parents are Tom and Anne-Marie, currently living in Keystone, SD. Logan’s older sister, Terah (Justin), have two little girls with another baby on the way. Logan’s younger brother, Justis, lives in Fargo, getting married this summer. Annika’s parents are Tammie and Kent, living in Hazen, ND. Her younger brother, Brandt, is attending the University of Oklahoma.

Vocation: Logan works as a Paramedic for Jamestown Ambulance. In addition, he is the Operations Manager for Last Leg Taxi, and works as a Security Guard at the University of Jamestown. Annika, as Logan puts it, is a domestic engineer (stay-at-home mom).

Hobbies: The Caldwells enjoy spending time together as a family. Both Logan and Annika have a passion for the arts and a love for music. They play quite a variety of instruments! They also discovered, this past summer, that they have “green thumbs”, based on their very successful garden. They enjoyed time together canning all of their garden produce!

Spiritual Background: Growing up in a pastor’s family, Logan was always at church. He was very involved with church activities, including summer VBS programs. During the last day of VBS (as a first grader), he felt an “empty spot”. Revelation 3:20 says, I stand at the door and knock... As the class prayed that day, Logan felt Jesus knocking on his heart’s door, and he was ready to let Jesus come in. Following his decision, Logan’s mother also prayed with him, and his father baptized him a couple weeks later. Logan attended TBC sporadically during his college years. Annika came to receive Jesus as her Savior through her mother’s leading. Her growth and love for Jesus were instilled in her through her mother’s mentoring and example. During Annika’s college years she attended a variety of churches before settling at TBC. At TBC she felt “fed” and “fulfilled”. Since getting married and becoming more involved within the church, Annika and Logan have become part of a small group. They enjoy the community of TBC. They look forward to God’s growing them and using them to help lead others to hear Jesus knocking on their hearts’ doors.

Did you know?

- Logan plays the bagpipes and enjoys scuba diving. Annika plays the hand bells.
- Logan, at one time, was a professional actor specializing in sword fighting.
- Annika has a love of public speaking! She once spoke to an audience of 10,000!
