CHILDREN OF . . .

1 John 2:28-3:10 (Real Community #6)

◆ Who are we?

To all who received him (i. e. Jesus), to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God—children born not of natural descent, nor of human decision or a husband's will, but born of God.

John 1:12-13 (cf. 3:3-8)

Why is our identity as God's child important?

◆ How do we live?

For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who has been tempted in every way, just as we are—yet was without sin. Let us then approach the throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need. Hebrews 4:15-16

What does the evidence of your life say about your family?

◆ What is our hope?

Now we see but a poor reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.

1 Corinthians 13:12

And we, who with unveiled faces all reflect the Lord's glory, are being transformed into his likeness with ever-increasing glory, which comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit. 2 Corinthians 3:18

NEXT STEPS: Read the text several times. Which question seems most important? Why? What is your relationship to God? To His family? Spend some time discussing what you are learning with another. What other questions do you have? Take time to pray with and for each other. Schedule another meeting a week later to share how you are putting what you are learning into practice.

Around the NAB Conference

Rick & Diane Linard - Albion, Idaho

The Linards felt called to start a church plant in the small mountain town of Albion. God blessed them with free use of a former LDS church, and they now hold Sunday services and Wednesday evening Bible studies there. Pray for Rick and Wallace Keck (leaders who both work full-time jobs in addition to serving) as they balance secular work and ministry opportunities. Pray their witness would be seen, heard and impactful.

Around the World

UZBEKISTAN - 84.9% Muslim; 0.8% Christian

The government relentlessly persecutes Christians, especially active congregations. Uzbekistan's secret police carry out phone taps and surveillance on places of worship, occasionally recruiting informers to infiltrate church activities. Christians face raids, literature confiscations, heavy fines, public humiliation, property seizure, job dismissal, beatings and torture.
