Philippians 2:1-11 (ESV)

So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others. Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Digging Deeper: Are you living the iLife???

Take some time this week and ask yourself some deep questions:

Who am I? Is my identity found in Christ or in the things I do? What inspires me? What motivates me? Is it a love for Christ and His Grace or the things of this world that cause me to get out of bed every morning? What am I learning about Christ? Is my faith growing or have I become stagnant? Who am I modeling my life after? Is my life imitating Christ or imitating a false image of success and happiness? What impact does my life have? Does my life leak Christ or does my life leak the things of this world?

Take some time this week and do an inventory of your life. God wants you to experience the freedom of his grace and mercy. He wants you to live an "abundant" life. If you seek to follow Christ with reckless abandon, you will not only experience the abundant life, but you will also become the person that God created you to be!!!
