JUNE 2013
VOLUME 13, ISSUE 6

To WORSHIP God, help people to KNOW Jesus Christ personally, GROW to be like Him, SHOW His love, and GO where He leads . . . TOGETHER.

June, for me, will be a month for rest, listening and refocusing. I've been operating at less than 100% for some time. The Elder Board is granting me a month off. Earlier this year wasn't feasible . . . and the last few months have depleted me even more. Kristy's time in the office will also be very limited in June. Pastor Randy Brown is available, as are the Elders (Fred Aziz, Ellery Coombs, John Elhard, Chris Hoke, Pat Motschenbacher, Kelly Rachel and Blake Reed). Please share your prayer needs, announcements and questions with them. You may leave a message for the church office if you do not know whom to contact.

Pastor Randy Brown (R2) will be leading to share a three-part series designed to help us see God, the church and the world differently. God's desire is for knowledge that impacts the heart and leads to transformation. You will not want to miss these messages. They will help us to ask some questions and prepare for a special series in September-October based in 1 Peter.

June 16 we will meet the summer staff from Crystal Springs Camp. June 30 Ryan and Laura Jensen (CRU, formerly Campus Crusade for Christ) will be our guests.

For the summer months we will not be having regular Sunday School, but we will meet at 9:30 a.m. for special emphases throughout the summer. We will have a Congregational Business Meeting June 2, a special emphasis with Crystal Springs Camp June 16 and a mission emphasis on June 30. Please watch for more details.

Let's share together in the fellowship gatherings after worship on those three Sundays. Pat and his ministry team are planning some fun events.

Who has God placed in your life (work, neighborhood, family, school, etc.)? Are you available to God by being available to them? What do they see and know of Jesus by watching and listening to you?

Let us hold unwaveringly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds.

Summer is finally here! School is out, and many will be headed for the beaches and pools. Summer is a time of refreshing and restructuring. For some it is a time, maybe, to make some much-needed repairs or to spruce up the yard. This is also true in the church. I have realized that if we are going to make an impact in this generation, we must get back to the model of the early church. It didn't take thousands of people to launch God's transformational Kingdom movement in Jerusalem during the first century. There were only 120 in that upper room pouring their hearts out to God in agreement when his transforming Spirit empowered them to engage their city. And from Jerusalem they turned the known world upside down. What did they do, and how did they do it? A study of the early church reveals how they grew and stayed focused on the mission Christ gave them. There were many factors involved, and we must practice these as well.

First, we must proclaim a transformational message. The new kingdom was not about changing the government; it was about transforming each individual life. We must have a burden to reach the lost and truly seek to help people find the transforming power of Christ. Second, we must embrace a missional focus. Church growth should not be our goal; it is a by-product. Our strategy has to come together in the prayer of agreement, unify around God's heart of compassion and engage the city with a message of Christ's love that meets people's needs. That will result in converts. Converts will then be discipled, and the church will become more authentic and experience growth. And third, we must help our members become living models of transformation. People aren't attracted to preaching personalities or church buildings or church programs. They are attracted to a people who demonstrate love and care for others, people who have a clear sense of purpose and convictions worth dying for. Our culture today has similarities to that of the first century. The needs of people are the same now as then. People in our community will respond and be changed by that same message of transformation. They will respond to the same missional focus, and they will be attracted to authentic models of transformation.

During the month of June, we will be looking at what it means to be "Missional". Each week we will look at a major component of what it will take for Temple Baptist to become a church that is on mission for Christ in Jamestown. I will be sending out weekly updates, questions and video links to help you dig deeper into the topics we will be covering on Sunday mornings. I am looking forward to taking this journey with you as we discover what kind of church Christ is leading us to become.

In His Peace,
Randy

Please plan to bring your own food, blankets and other picnic necessities. (A grill will be provided.) Please remember to bring outdoor games (Frisbees, footballs, etc.) In addition to the fun, we also want to demonstrate our love and care for our community. Each time we meet, we will also take time to pick up garbage and dispose of it properly. Please direct any questions to Pat Motschenbacher (320-1710; patm@daktel.com)

Tory & Lisa Anderson

Background: Tory grew up in Perham, MN; Lisa is a Jamestown girl. They met in Fargo (West Acres Mall), where they worked at adjoining stores. They were set up on a blind date on Valentine's Day—and have been together ever since!

Family: Elijah (Eli) is 6 years old and just finished his kindergarten year. He loves sports, riding the four-wheeler, camping and fishing. He also plays soccer. Abigail (Abby) is 3 years old; Abby attended pre-school this year. She is very much a "girly" girl—loves playing with dolls, dressing up and painting her nails. She also likes to play outside.

Vocation: Tory is employed as a sales representative for Nabisco. Lisa works at JHS, supervising the Academic Support Room.

Hobbies: Tory loves riding the four-wheeler (ATV) and camping—especially in the Badlands. He also enjoys "lounging", but has discovered that he can't remain "idle" for long; he has many unfinished projects! Lisa likes reading, walking and working in the flower garden. They both like boating with family during the summer.

Spiritual Background: Tory grew up attending church. He remembers being at church one Sunday and raising his hand when the Sunday school teacher asked who wanted to pray for Jesus to come into his heart. Lisa also grew up attending church, especially with her mom and brother. When she and Tory started their family, she knew she wanted her children to grow up in the church. Lisa says that she has definitely grown to know Jesus better since becoming a Mom and coming to church! They came to TBC after an invitation from their friends, C.J. and Wendy Hager, who knew that the Andersons had been searching for a church home and felt that Tory and Lisa might enjoy TBC as much as they did.

Did you know? Tory loves fishing, but he is allergic to fish—even touching them! He often gets "grief" from friends and family members when Lisa has to take his fish off the hook!
