AROUND THE NAB CONFERENCE

Shan Reed - Japan

I grew up in Madison, SD, became an elementary school teacher, and then moved to Japan to be an NAB short-term missionary. From the moment I stepped off the train in Japan, I knew I was home. I have now lived in Japan for 19 years. For the past nine years, I have been involved in the Komyo Christian Church Plant with Paul and Melissa Ewing. God is at work in Japan, and we are excited to be part of what He is doing there through Bible studies, English conversation classes, gospel music, and coffee shop conversations.

AROUND THE WORLD

Liberia - 45.3% Ethnic Religions; 36.8% Christianity; Islam 16.7%
The church in Liberia is often characterized as being scripturally ignorant and materialistic. Islam is spreading, not only through the Mandingo tribe but also more broadly. Ethno-religious violence occasionally flares up between Muslim Mandingos and other groups. Voice of the Martyrs contacts report that Christian converts are mistreated by several fundamentalist Muslim tribes.
