HUSBAND AND WIFE: COMPETITORS OR COMPANIONS?

... submitting to one another out of reverence for Christ. Wives, submit to your own husbands, as to the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife even as Christ is the head of the church, his body, and is himself its Savior. Now as the church submits to Christ, so also wives should submit in everything to their husbands.

Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her, that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, so that he might present the church to himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish. In the same way husbands should love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. For no one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, just as Christ does the church, because we are members of his body. "Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and hold fast to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh." This mystery is profound, and I am saying that it refers to Christ and the church. However, let each one of you love his wife as himself, and let the wife see that she respects her husband. Ephesians 5:21-33

Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. 1 Corinthians 13:4-7

NEXT STEPS: What stood out from the interview? Take some time reading through the two passages above aloud. Now do it silently, pausing to allow the Lord to speak. What seems to catch your attention? What is God's direction to YOU through these words (single or married)? Take some time to share your responses with another. What are you learning together? What is your next step? How will you support each other in those steps? Pray for each other. Conclude by reading through the passages aloud. Prepare for worship next Sunday by reading Hebrews 4:14-5:10.

Around the World

Mindanao (Philippines) - 4.8% Muslim; 91% Christian

The second largest island in the Philippines, Mindanao is a region marred by decades of violent guerrilla warfare. Though predominantly Catholic, Christians living here are often isolated and impoverished. They face continual risk of persecution by Muslim rebel groups. Insurgent Muslims steal their land and crops, hijack motorbikes, raid villages, sometimes abducting villagers for use as human shields while fleeing from the military.
