Sermon Notes:

Philippians 1:1-11

Welcome to Jim & Marilyn Dick! Jim and Marilyn shuttle between living in Minnesota and Nevada, with frequent stops in Colorado to visit their three sons and their families. Thank you for sharing with us today.

Salvation Army Donations: Non-perishable food items and personal care items are being collected for the Salvation Army. Items may be placed in the boxes in the back.

Daily Bread, Jamestown: This program provides free frozen prepared foods for families in need. Freezers have been placed at Lincoln and Washington Elementary Schools as well as the Jamestown Middle School.

Wave of Light Remembrance Service - October 15, 7 pm, St. John's
 This candlelight service is for families and loved ones affected by infant loss in and around the Jamestown area. Fellowship and refreshments will follow the service. Please contact Renae Lunde (952-4807) for more information.

Eszter Csuhai - Hungary

Eszter and her fiancé Laci are currently training Roma and Hungarian volunteers to begin a children's Community Health Evangelism (CHE) Club. Pray for those they train and for the children and young people who will come, most of whom do not know Jesus. Pray for Eszter as she seeks to finish her Master's thesis while also working full time. Pray for Laci as he works with Roma men to find the best way to begin fuel-for-the-winter programs.

Around the World

*IRAQ- Muslim 95.9%; Christian 1.6%

Iraq is a complicated mixture of severe persecution and increased freedom for believers and evangelism. There are about 70 evangelical congregations in Iraq, but two-thirds of the churches have closed. In Baghdad alone, more than 90 churches have been destroyed and hundreds of thousands of Christians have fled. Islamic extremists have targeted Christian leaders, churches and businesses.
