EVERYDAY EVANGELISM: THE WORDS WE LIVE

1 Peter 3:15-16 (Everyday Church #5)

But in your hearts set apart Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect, keeping a clear conscience, so that those who speak maliciously against your good behavior in Christ may be ashamed of their slander. 1 Peter 3:15-16

Pray that together . . .

- Our lives will point to the Lord of our hearts.

Since you call on a Father who judges each man's work impartially, live your lives as strangers here in reverent fear. 1 Peter 1:17

Show proper respect (honor) to all: Love the brotherhood of believers, fear God, honor the king. 2:17

But even if you should suffer for what is right, you are blessed. "Do not fear what they fear; do not be frightened." 3:14 (cf. Isaiah 8:12ff)

The "lord" my heart points to is . . .

- Our words will witness to our hope in Christ.

My hope is in Christ because . . .

Do you presume on the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance? Romans 2:4 (ESV)

NEXT STEPS

Read 1 Peter 3:15-16 and Romans 2:4. Why is it important that our verbal witness to others springs from our hope together in Christ? What is so important about the TOGETHER part? What is God affirming in your life? What needs to change? What is the next step? List what you think is important in sharing the gospel message. What part does listening play? Thank God for His grace in your life.
