FIVE IMPORTANT WORDS

Mark 12:28-34; Luke 22:24-27; John 13:2-5, 33-35

◆ Love God.

Jesus answered, "The most important (commandment) is, 'Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and will all your mind and with all your strength.'" Mark 12:29-30 (cf. 1 John 4:19; Galatians 4:19)

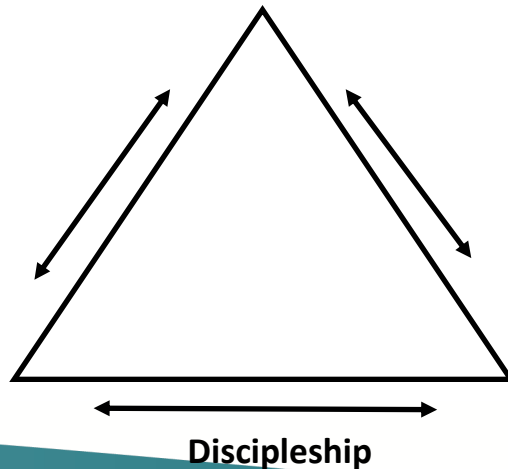

◆ Love others.

"The second is this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these." Mark 12:31 (cf. John 3:16)

◆ Love one another.

"A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: Just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. By this all people will know you are my disciples, if you have love for one another." John 13:34-35

NEXT STEPS: Read Mark 12:28-34; Luke 22:24-27; John 13:3-5, 33-35 aloud slowly three times. Share with another the word or phrase that stands out to you. Review the outline. Discuss the interconnectedness of Loving God. Loving Others. Together. What is God helping you to see within this building? Outside? Around your home? In the mirror? Share a praise, a request and then pray together. Next week Pastor Kalen will be sharing.

AROUND THE WORLD

Cuba - 23.1% Non-religious; 56.2% Christianity
 Churches and other religious communities are required to undergo an invasive registration process with the Ministry of Justice. Restrictive laws as well as government-authorized surveillance and harassment allow the government to limit and monitor religious practice. Individual churches are prevented from maintaining their own finances, and any community deemed too independent of government control is targeted for fines, mob attacks, destruction of property, and short term arrest of leaders.
