LIVING ON THE MARGINS

1 Peter 1:1-12 (Everyday Church #1)

Living on the margins means everyday . . .

- ◆ I look differently, because . . .

They think it strange that you do not plunge with them into the same flood of dissipation, and they heap abuse on you. 1 Peter 4:4

- ◆ I live differently, because . . .

Dear friends, I urge you as aliens and strangers in the world, to abstain from sinful desires, which war against your soul. Live such good lives among the pagans that, though they accuse you of doing wrong, they may see your good deeds and glorify God on the day he visits us. 2:11-12

But how is it to your credit if you receive a beating for doing wrong and endure it? 2:20b

However, if you suffer as a Christian, do not be ashamed, but praise God that you bear that name. 4:16

- ◆ I love differently.

Now that you have purified yourselves by obeying the truth so that you have sincere love for your brothers, love each other deeply/consistently/constantly/earnestly from the heart. 1:22 (cf. 2:17)

Finally, all of you, live in harmony with one another, be sympathetic, love as brothers, be compassionate and humble. 3:8

Before all things, having constant/consistent/earnest love for each other, because love covers a multitude of sins. 4:8

NEXT STEPS: Be sure to 1) download or pickup a Study Guide and 2) sign up for a Small Group. Compare the use of aliens and strangers (2:11) with foreigners and aliens (Ephesians 2:19) and aliens and strangers (Hebrews 11:13). Consider your look, life and love. Are you living on the margins? Why or why not? How is God asking you to trust Him? Reread 1 Peter 1:1-12.
